

Durham's Partnership for Children
Readers as Leaders Volunteer
Job Description

Title:

Readers as Leaders

Description:

Readers as Leaders is a reading program that is sponsored by Durham's Partnership for Children's Partnership for Children (DPfC).

Goal:

The goal is to prevent later reading difficulties by helping children acquire the necessary language, cognitive, and early reading development required for continued school success. Readers as Leaders use the power of their friendship to help excite children about reading. Readers as Leaders provides young children with high-quality language-and-print rich environments so that they can attain fundamental knowledge and skills necessary for optimal reading and cognitive development in preschool and beyond.

Time Required:

We require a minimum of two hours a month with a six-month commitment. Volunteers submit their hours monthly via e-mail to Kelly at Kelly@dpfc.net.

Qualifications and Special skills:

- Caring heart
- Sensitivity
- Ability to be a friend
- Desire to make a difference

Benefits:

You touch the life of a child through reading and sharing your time and qualities.

Volunteer Contact:

Kelly McCoy, DPfC
1201 South Briggs Ave., Suite 210
Durham, NC 27703
(919) 403-6960 ext 230
kelly@dpfc.net

For more information, please send email to kelly@dpfc.net.