PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE OCTOBER, 21 2008

Partnership Names Board Chair and Officers

DURHAM, NC- Durham's Partnership for Children, a Smart Start Initiative, held its Annual Board Meeting on October 16, 2008 and voted for Michael Palmer and the existing executive committee to serve another term. Each term lasts one calendar year.

Michael Palmer is Director of Community Affairs for Duke University. Michael oversees the office that manages the Neighborhood Partnership. A former Deputy Durham County Manager, he fosters productive relations between Duke and community groups and identifies outside funding for Duke Partnership activities. Michael is Duke's main liaison to Durham city and county government.

Michael has been the chair of the Community Awareness Committee, Treasurer and Chair of the Finance committee for the Partnership. He has most recently served as Board Chair since August of 2007 and served as Vice Chair of the Board in 2005 and 2006.

“The Partnership is glad that Michael and our current slate of officers remain in their positions serving Durham’s young children and their families for another year, stated Marsha Basloe, Executive Director of Durham’s Partnership for Children. Our Board leadership possesses the collective experience and mindshare to make the most informed decisions to help the Partnership continue to touch the lives of Durham families with children birth to age 5.”

In addition to Mr. Palmer, Membership Chair, Durham County Commissioner, Ellen Reckhow presented the Board with the following slate of officers to serve another year:

Officers:

- Vice Chair: Angie Welsh is Senior Vice President of Resource Development for the Triangle United Way. Angie oversees all aspects of the resource development department that includes data analysis, strategic planning, program funding, program monitoring, and agency relations. Angie has been a member of the Allocations Committee with Durham’s Partnership for Children. She also directed the start-up and wrote the grant proposal for the first Smart Start grant that initiated the Wilson County Partnership for Children.
- Secretary: Ilene Britt is the Program Director of the Early Childhood Associate program and an Instructor at Durham Technical Community College. Ilene has been involved with Durham’s Partnership for Children since its inception. She has been a pediatric early interventionist, a child care center director, served as a board member of the NC Interagency Coordinating Council, and is a NC Early Childhood Education Fellow.

- Treasurer: Bill Bryant is President of Bryant Investment Management Group, LLC in Durham. He works with organizations, families and individuals on financial issues such as investment management, retirement plans, saving for college and other financial planning issues. Bill holds designations of Certified Financial Planner™, Certified Investment Management Analyst™, and Chartered Retirement Plan Specialist. Bill has been involved with Durham's Partnership for Children for four years and has served as Chair for the Community Awareness and Development Committee and the Finance Committee. In addition, Bill is a member of the Investment and Executive Committees.

About Durham's Partnership for Children

Durham's Partnership for Children was founded in 1994 and first funded in 1995 to administer the Smart Start grant in Durham County. Smart Start is North Carolina's nationally recognized initiative to ensure all children enter school healthy and ready to succeed. Smart Start helps working parents pay for childcare, improves the quality of childcare and provides health and family support services in every North Carolina County. The Partnership works with funded partners (affiliated organizations) to achieve its mission: "To mobilize and unify the Durham community to create and support innovative and successful approaches to serving the needs of children 0-5 and their families." Durham's Partnership for Children also administers the Governor's More at Four Program in Durham County.
